

Who we are

Established in 2003, Advize is a HUBZone certified, woman owned small business and healthcare advisory company headquartered in Tampa, Florida. We employ a mixture of Subject Matter Experts ranging from clinicians to medical record auditors and program integrity professionals as well as a variety of healthcare consultants (IT security, Project Management, Training/Education).

What we do

Our team of subject matter experts built their proficiency through law enforcement and health plan experience along with keeping current on schemes identified across health plans. Advize has grown into a leading national provider of healthcare, internal audit, external audit, advisory and compliance services.

Difference

Our team is made up of individuals who have worked some of the largest and toughest projects across all major verticals. We have Big Four, former military, and even retired HHS-OIG senior special agents on Staff. No never-ending projects, no development hell, no sitting around collecting consulting fees "waiting" for answers. We deliver quality results on time and under budget, right now.
